

WGA 18 Sponsor Update

New and Returning Sponsors and Gifts Cards and Gift Basket Items

New Sponsors

Waterloo Capital Management, CraigCunningham:$2,000 Donation

Donated $1,000 plus hole prizes of some sort at each of the WGA tournaments to be determined ( $500 cash or gift certificates ) and an after golf event, wine tasting and light snacks ($500 Value).

What does Waterloo Capital Management do?:

“Our primary goal is to combine everything an investor would want from a large institutional firm with the personal attention he or she would receive from a boutique firm. We have a deep understanding of our clients’ financial situations, their needs, their goals, and their long-term dreams, which allows us to mold investment strategies that best suit their needs — not ours.

We also provide our clients with a full range of financial services that are constructed to grow and protect wealth. This combination of service, expertise and unparalleled access is what separates Waterloo Capital Management from the competition.”

Allstate Pest Control: $200 Donation

“Allstate Pest Control is family owned company since 1983.

Our small company has been serving the Georgetown community since 1983. We have become the leading pest control company because our customers know they can trust and depend on us.”

All our technicians are licensed and background check by the state of Texas, giving you the extra piece of mind.”
