Microsoft Software License Terms

SUPPLEMENT TO MICROSOFT SERVICES AGREEMENT
OFFICE SERVICE AND SOFTWARE IN MICROSOFT 365 CONSUMER SUBSCRIPTION
Last updated April 2020

Thank you for choosing a Microsoft 365 Consumer Subscription!

Your use of the Office service and software included in your Microsoft 365 subscription (the "service/software") is governed by the terms and conditions of the Microsoft Services Agreement you agreed to when you signed up for a Microsoft Account (linked below) and the terms and conditions of this Supplement (collectively, the "Agreement"), which with other terms contained in web links listed in this Supplement (if any) are an agreement between you and Microsoft Corporation (or, based on where you live, one of its affiliates). A separate license may be presented when installing or using the service/software on a device, and that separate license controls to the extent of any conflict with the Agreement. You should review this entire Supplement, including any linked terms, because all the terms are important and create this contract that applies to you. You can review linked terms by pasting the applicable link into your browser window. In the event of any conflict between the Microsoft Services Agreement and this Supplement, this Supplement will govern as to your use of the service/software.

By accepting this Supplement or using the service and software, you agree to all these terms and consent to the transmission of certain information during activation and during your use of the software pursuant to the Microsoft Privacy Statement described in the Microsoft Services Agreement and linked below in this Supplement. If you do not accept and comply with these terms, you may not use the services, software or their features.

1. Installation and Use Rights; Activation.

a. License; Number of Users and Devices Signed In; Other Requirements. The service/software is licensed, not sold. Provided that you comply with all the terms of the Agreement, we grant you the right to install and run copies of the service/software on devices you own and control, and for your personal use, as follows:

- (i) Microsoft 365 Family Subscription. For use by you and five (5) additional members of your household (up to six users total).
- (ii) Microsoft 365 Personal Subscription. For use by you only. The non-commercial use restriction set forth in the Microsoft Services Agreement does not apply to users who live in Japan or acquired their subscription to the service/software while they lived in Japan.
- (iii) Devices Signed In. There may be technical limits on the number of devices that can be signed in by a user concurrently to use the service/software, as described in the help article found at <https://go.microsoft.com/fwlink/?linkid=874481>.

(iv) Other Requirements. Except as permitted under Section 1.a(i) above, only one person at a time may use the service/software on each device. The service/software may not be used for commercial, non-profit, or revenue-generating activities. The components of the software are licensed as a single unit, and you may not separate or virtualize the components and install them on different devices. Except for the permitted use described under "Remote Access" below, this license is for direct use of the software only through the input mechanisms of a device, such as a keyboard, mouse, or touchscreen. Installation of the software on a server or for use by or through other devices connected to the server over an internal or external network and commercial hosting are expressly prohibited. For more information on multiple user scenarios and virtualization, see Section 1.d below.

b. Subscription Period/License Term. Your right to use the service/software is limited to the subscription period. You may have the option to extend your subscription. If you
