WHO

Women Helping Others

WHO is a cohesive group of Sun City residents with a passion and purpose for caring, sharing and serving the extended community.

WHO

Women Helping Others is a Sun City charter club that meets once a month.

WHO invites speakers from local non-profit organizations to educate its members on the many needs of Williamson County.

Together, WHO members are making a positive difference in our community by donating funds and volunteering their time.

Mission Statement

WHO partners with area non-profits; providing time, donations and assistance while fostering camaraderie, fellowship and inclusion among its members.

Annual membership dues are $10. A $10 donation is optional at each monthly meeting.
