11

Assistance League helps students, encourages volunteerism

ly meetmg, the Women Helping Others enloyed a wonderful Presentation about the Assistance League of Anne Marshall Georgetown. The presentation was given to the WHO ladies by Jane Sheperd, president of this very special organization.

The Assistance League is part of the first wave of nonprofit organizations in the United States that empowered ordinary citizens to improve communities and transform lives through long-t_{er} m volunteerism.

Since 2014, the Assistance League of Georgetown has been granting scholarships to graduating high school students. At the group's annual meeting held in MaY, 10 students from East View. Jarrell and Georgetown high 'schools shared their plans for the future with chapter members and were presented with award certificates.

Since its inception, the scholarship program has awarded o er $450 000 to high school sef them in pursuing on and achieving e • goals Withoutfinanciallim-1tat10ns.

From 2021 to 2022, Operation School Bell provided clothing for more than 1500 students and provided emergency clothing to 15 area elementary sch O?s. Children who go t schc; nw;;:;:: out adequate clothmg o fer low self-esteem. Students m

WOMEN HELPING OTHERS

clothing. Positive student self-es-

The Assistance League of Georgetown Area received its guild status in 1998 and was chartered in July 2001, the 108th chapter of Assistance League. The 100 percent volunteer-based organization is dedicated to transforming the lives of children and adults through community programs.

Its philanthropic efforts are hands-on, designed for high engagement and local impact.

The New Friends progra?1 was initiated in 1998 when AssIStance League voh.1 teers began hosting mothly b day and holiday artles for es1d ents of the Special Care Urut of Wesleyan at Scer ic 1? r getown.

U on rece1vmg chapter tatus m July 2001, the Operat10n School Bell program was ari opted from the station also s ???? m Reading and More program now prov1des reading mentors for second-grade stu ents in the Jarrell. Igo and Florence elementary schools.

Beyond mentoring almost 200 tudents this year the program ;aid fo; approximately _1,800 books to add to the student librargrades Ka are identified by Georgetown, JarreH, Florence, Granger and Taylor elementary school cow1selors and are invited to shop on special shopping days at Walmart for brand new teem is priceless.

Women Helping Others Vice President Maria Tolleson, left. stands with Jane Sheperd, president of the Assistance League of Georgetown.

COURTESY WOMEN HELPING OTHERS

ies - helping almost 1,500-second graders advance their reading skills. In 2014, the local Chapter added the Scholarship Program to aid graduating seniors from Georgetown, East View, Jarrell, Florence and Richarte high schools continue their education. Assistance League launched the Assist A Teacher program in August 2016. In Assist A Teacher, the group provides first-time, firstve ar elementary school teachers with supplies to enhance their new classroom. This year they were able to support 38 new teachers.

Since 2002, the organization's nerve center and primary source of funds is the Thrift Shop in Georgetown where, each year, hundreds of loyal customers purchase almost $300,000 worth of merchandise, all hand-processed by the bulk of the chapter's 150 volunteers.

In total, Assistance League volunteers donated almost 18000 hours of time over the past 12 months. From humble begin nings back in 1998, Assistance League of Georgetown has grown to become one of the most consistent and highly respected all-volunteer philanthropic organizations in the community.

Much of the support consistently comes from many Sun City 'residents, who volunteer at the Thrift Shop. The group is proud to represent the best of Georgetown.